Old Business:

1. Cook books~34 remaining
2. St. Rose PCCW Group has been dissolved and members have been placed in the remaining 6 groups.
3. All PCCW officers are to attend at least one meeting each year.
4. Review of PCCW group list information~Patty and Linda will continue to review lists after Fish Fries to be sure the list stays current.
5. PCCW dues envelope~$750 has been collected as of 7 June 2021.
6. Reaching out to older parishioners in each of the PCCW groups~Groups are sending cards during their assigned months.

New Business:

1. Father Tom's farewell social, 13 June~PCCW is hosting the social. Muffins, grapes, cheese and sausage, coffee, and lemonade will be served.
2. Father Allen's 20th ordination anniversary 30 June~The parish is planning a picnic for the new CCD program in September. We plan to celebrate Fr. Allen's 20th ordination anniversary at that time. Nancy will check with Fr. Allen on this.
3. Christmas Bazaar~Raffle tickets will be $2.00 per ticket or 3 for $5.00. Brenda will print the tickets. Four books per envelope will be put together for members to sell. Top prize will be $500. A motion that there will be no 50/50 raffle at the Christmas Bazaar was made by Carol Guralski, seconded by Arlene Schreier.

4. Funeral Guidelines~Linda presented a list of funeral guidelines. It was suggested to change the following: some caterers bring milk; dessert handling will be determined as Covid restrictions are lifted. A motion to approve the changes was made by Kay Lehman, seconded by Carol Ashbeck.

5. Christmas deliveries of Poinsettias~Jan Sliwicki presented how she has handled the delivery in the past few years. A final decision on how to proceed will be made at the September meeting.

6. Mother's Day weekend Rose Sale~The roses this year came from Stark's because the organization Judy Berg went through did not do the program this year. $224 was raised to send to the diocese.

7. New Shut-in correspondence schedule proposal~See the PCCW calendar for the new schedule. Arlene Schreier made a motion to approve the new schedule, seconded by Carol Ashbeck.

8. Divine Mercy Sunday Collection for 2022~Saturday, 23 April will be handled by St. Anne Marie Group, and Sunday, 24 April will be handled by Our Lady of Mount Carmel Group.
